OUTLINES.

The sea fight between the Russian and Japanese fleets in the Korean Srealts on Saturday and Sunday was the world's greatest modern naval engagement; the Japanese victory was absolutely overwhelming; only two Russian ships so far have reached Vladivostok in safety; Vice Admiral Rojestvenaky and Rear Admirals Nebogatoff and Veolkersam anr prisoners of Japanese, seems the least reliable piece of news concerning their fate; Czar of Russia is crushed by the great blow——National Decoration-Day was observed in many Southern cities yesterday, thousands of graves of Federal heroes being decorated with flowers; at Knoxville, flowers were scattered on the river in memory of the naval heroes——The American participants in the ladies' golf championship in England, held their own well in yesterday's game——At Americus, Ga., yesterday Captain Calvin W. Felder, Seminole Indian war and Confederate veteran, died——The news from Tokio and St. Petersburg concerning the fate of Vice Admiral Rojestvensky in the great naval battle Sunday, is conflicting, but the story sent by the captain of a torpedo boat that he picked up the commander of the vanquished fleet floating in the sea and wounded, and carried him to Vladivostok is most probably true —— President Roosevelt was in Brooklyn, N. Y., yesterday and delivered an address at the unveiling of a monument to General Henry W. Slocum; the President paid a tribute to Federal ond Confederate soldiers, and pointed to recent events to make an argument for a big navy——In the Decoration-Day exercises at Andersonville yesterday, Georgia State troops fired the salute over the graves of the Federal dead ——There were no market quotations North yesterday on account of National Decoration Day.

Hon. Hoke Smith is a candidate for the Democratic nomination for governor of Georgia. He is a native of North Carolina, but we don't know what "charges" his opponent will bring against him to keep North Carolina from having a governor of Georgia.

Says the Raleigh Post: "Governor Glenn is accused of talking a good deal." It is nothing against a man that he has some womanly qualities about him, if he has judg-ment, which the lamented Senator Brown, of Georgia, used to say that every man ought to have.

TRUCKERS AFTER CLAIMS

Meeting of E. C. T. & F. G. Association Executive Committee Here Yesterday Committee.

An important meeting of the Executive Committee of the East Carolina Truck and Fruit Growers' Association was held here yesterday at which the recent loss of strawberry growers by reason of the car shortage, was quite generally discussed with a view of securing a speedy and equitable adjustment of claims.

A resolution was adopted which the secretary was instructed to send to all members of the Association urging them to at once file all claims with proof of same with the secretary of the Association and a committee composed of J. A. Brown, J. A. Westbrook and H. T. Bauman was appointed to confer with Third Vice President T. M. Emerson of the Atlantic Coast Line, relative thereto. The same committee was requested also to take up with the Southern Express officials all claims against that company. The resolution adopted closes with this significant paragraph: "We have every assurance that all legitimate claims will be speedily adjusted."

Mr. V. Phillip Miavlag, counsel for the Armour company, met with the committee and stated that he had already settled in spot cash a large number of the smaller claims in the Chadbourn section and that the larger ones will be promptly paid by check from headquarters. Mr. Miavlag will go to Wallace Thursday and meet Mr. J. S. Westbrook and a number of other prominent growers from Rose Hill and Teachey for the purpose of arranging a basis of settlement for those points. He will later visit other stations in the trucking belt on the same mission.

Present at the meeting yesterday were W. L. Hill, of Warsaw, chairman; H. T. Bauman, Wilmington, secretary; J. A. Brown and W. E. Thigpen, Chadbourn; Wm. E. Springer, Wilmington; J. A. Westbrook, Mount Olive, and J. S. Westbrook, Wallace.

The following is a copy of the letter and resolution which the secretary was instructed to send out to members of the Association:

Wilmington, N. C.

Dear Sir:—It is essential to file at once all claims which you may have against the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad Co., for failure to supply the necessary refrigerator cars in which to load and ship your strawberries; for imperfect refrigeration where cars were supplied, but not in time for such cars to be properly iced and cooled before loading into them and for unreasonable delays in transit and other causes. These claims should be made at once with all necessary papers attached, bills of lading, account of sales, etc., for presentation to the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad Co. for payment. These must be filed at once with H. T. Bauman, Secretary of the Association, Wilmington, who will give them prompt attention.

We have every assurance that all legitimate claims will be speedily adjusted.

By the Executive Committee,
W. L. HILL, Chairman.
H. T. BAUMAN, Secretary.

Resolved: That the Executive Committee of the East Carolina Fruit & Truck Growers' Association in special session here to-day realizes that an extraordinary condition exists among the growers and shippers of strawberries throughout this territory, brought about by the recent car shortage and delays in transit, and for the benefit of all concerned would state that every effort is being made by the officers of this Association to arrive at a basis of settlement for the prompt liquidation of all losses of this character.

To that end all growers are urged to make out their claims and forward to the secretary of this Association, H. T. Bauman, Wilmington, N. C., the Atlantic Coast Line having asked that this be done as a condition precedent to the payment of all reasonable and just claims.

If the growers will only co-operate promptly with the Association in this matter the work of classifying these claims and effecting their collection will be greatly expedited.

RESPITE FOR TEACHEY.

J. O. Carr and W. T. Wortch Heard in Behalf of Prisoner.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Raleigh, N. C., May 30.—Orders were made by Governor Glenn to-day granting respites to Dan Teachey, in Duplin, and Will Exum, in Lenoir counties, from June 10th to July 22nd, Teachey being under death sentence for killing Robert Rivenbark, and Will Exum for killing Guy Walston. Respites are in order that the Governor may have further time to investigate the merits of the pleas being urged in each case for commutation to life imprisonment.

W. T. Dortch, Esq., of Goldsboro, and J. O. Carr, Esq., of Wilmington, appeared before the Governor in behalf of Teachey. The Governor will hear further evidence in the case at Goldsboro on June 21st, where he will meet counsel by agreement.

—The office on Princess street, formerly occupied by Ware & Leland, brokers, who retired from business after the recent decision of the Supreme Court, is being nicely fitted up and will be occupied as insurance offices by Capt. J. VanB. Metts, who will remove from the S. A. L. building.

DIOCESAN COUNCIL

Twenty-Second Annual Convention of Episcopal Church in East Carolina.

BISHOP STRANGE PRESIDING

Opening Day's Session Largely Devoted to Preliminary Work—Newbern Next Place of Meeting—Woman's Auxiliary.

The twenty-second annual council of the Protestant Episcopal church in the Diocese of East Carolina convened in Saint James' church, this city, yesterday morning at 10 o'clock. Twenty-one of the 28 clergy and 26 lay delegates, representing 14 of the 40 parishes, are in attendance. The sessions are being presided over by the Rt. Rev. Robert Strange, D. D., Bishop of the Diocese, and Rev. Frederick N. Skinner, of Clinton, is in attendance as secretary. The business yesterday was largely routine and preliminary. Organization for the new council year was effected by the re-election of Rev. Nathaniel Harding, of Washington, president; Rev. F. N. Skinner, of Clinton, secretary, and Rev. L. L. Williams, of Elizabeth City, assistant secretary.

The conciliar sermon was preached by Rev. F. H. T. Horsfield, Goldsboro, from the text "Father, Glorify Thy Son." The sermon is spoken of by all who heard it as a very fine discourse and especially appropriate to the occasion. The celebration of Holy Communion was most impressive. Bishop Strange and Rev. Mr. Skinner officiated, assisted by Rev. Mr. Harding, who read the Gospel, and Rev. Dr. Carmichael, who read the Epistle.

Upon recommendation by the presiding Bishop Mr. George Rountree was chosen chancellor and Rev. F. N. Skinner, registrar. The following committees were appointed:

Unfinished Business—Rev. Harold Thomas, R. H. Pickett, of Wilmington, and D. F. Wooten, of Kinston.

New Parishes—Rev. J. H. Griffith, of Kinston, J. P. Haskitt, Kinston, and W. L. Hardy, Lenoir county.

Elections—Rev. Luther Eborn, Creswell; F. A. Boyle, Plymouth; B. R. King, Goldsboro.

United Offering for General Convention of 1907—Rev. N. Harding, Washington; R. B. Drane, D. D., Edenton; R. W. Hogue, Wilmington; W. G. Lamb, Williamston; Wm. Calder, Wilmington; B. R. Huske, Fayetteville.

Afternoon Session.

At the afternoon session beginning at 5 o'clock the Finance Committee reported that the Treasurer's annual report had been examined and found correct. It was approved. Col. Wm. L. DeRosset was unanimously re-elected treasurer.

The Committee on Canons made a report which will be finally acted upon to-day. Its chief feature is the definition of a communicant of the church.

The special committee, to which the matter was referred at the last council, reported in favor of merging the clergy relief fund. This action was thought best especially for the weaker dioceses to the end that a uniform policy and economy of administration may prevail throughout the church and also that the fund may be distributed wisely, equitably and efficiently. The report was referred to the Committee on Canons for report to-day upon the legality of the proposed action.

Rev. Mr. Skinner, the Registrar, reported that he had received from Rev. John R. Harding, of Utica, N. Y., as a memorial to his father, the gift of a complete file of the journals of the Diocese of North Carolina from 1817 to 1880, collected by the Rev. Israel Harding. The journal of one year was not obtainable in printed form but it was copied in writing, duly attested by the secretary of the convention and bound with the others. A resolution of thanks to Mr. Harding was unanimously adopted and the secretary was instructed to transmit to him a certified copy of the same.

A resolution by Rev. F. B. Ticknor, of Aurora, was adopted, directing the Trustees of the Diocese to deed to the wardens and vestry of the Chapel of the Cross, at Aurora, for the purpose of building a rectory, half an acre lot in the town of Aurora.

The report of the trustees of St. Mary's School, Raleigh, was made the special order for this afternoon at 5 o'clock. The report of the trustees of the University of the South to immediately follow. The report of the Trustees of the Diocese will follow immediately the Bishop's address this morning.

A committee of three of the clergy and two laymen, consisting of Revs. T. M. N. George, Nathaniel Harding, of Washington, N. C., and L. L. Williams, of Elizabeth City, and Messrs. William Calder, of Wilmington, and F. A. Boyle, of Plymouth, were appointed to draft suitable resolutions upon the death of the late lamented Bishop Watson.

The secretary was instructed to send a telegram of greeting to the convention of the Diocese of Southern Virginia.

By resolution of Rev. Edward Wootten, of Wilmington, the Trustees of the Diocese, were instructed to look into and if necessary to perfect deeds to all property now held by the Diocese.

In behalf of the Newbern delegation, Rev. Mr. George presented a cordial invitation for the council to assemble in Christ's church, that city, for its next annual session. The invitation was accepted.

The Night Session.

The night session opened with Evening Prayer conducted by Rev. T. M. N. George, of Newbern. Addresses limited to ten minutes on the following subjects were heard:

"The Missionary in the Field," by Rev. W. E. Cox.

"What Can Laymen Do to Extend the Church Outside of their own Parishes?" by Mr. Wm. F. Robertson.

"What Can Laymen Do to Interest Their Own Parishes in Church Extension?" by Mr. B. R. Huske.

"What the Rector of a Parish can do for the Extension of the Church in the Diocese," by Rev. Nathaniel Harding.

The Order For To-day.

The council will assemble at 9:30 o'clock this morning and the Bishop's address will be received at 10 A. M.

The Woman's Auxiliary of the Diocese, of which Miss Sue Collier, of Goldsboro, is general secretary, will meet for early communion at St. James' at 7:30 o'clock this morning and at St. Paul's Church at 11 o'clock. There will be an address by the Bishop and Mr. John W. Wood, Associate Secretary of the Board of Foreign Missions, will speak. There will also be several other addresses. Rev. W. E. Cox will open the meeting with devotional exercises. Mrs. Hall McKoy, president of the St. James' chapter, has all the arrangements in charge for the Auxiliary meetings.

A business session of the council will be held in the afternoon and Evening Prayer will be held at 8:30 P. M. with addresses as follows: "The Mission Field," by Mr. John W. Wood, Associate Secretary of the Board of Foreign Missions; "The Story of The Brazilian Mission," by Rev. James W. Morris, D. D., one of the founders of that mission.

Col. W. G. Lamb, Williamston.

Bishop Strange, the clergy and lay delegates from the four Wilmington parishes, of course, are also in attendance.

LOCAL DOTS.

—Spirits turpentine on the local market yesterday was steady at 71 1-2 cents.

—The excursion from Fayetteville yesterday brought 470 passengers. The train consisted of 12 cars.

—Will Townsend, colored, was arrested by Policeman Leon George, at Sixth and Nixon streets, yesterday, charged with vagrancy.

—Services at First Church of Christ, Scientist, this evening at 8:15 o'clock, Odd Fellows' building, second floor. All are invited.

—By deed filed for record yesterday Mary M. Bell transferred to Mary A. Chadbourn, for $1,750, property on west side of Sixth, 66 feet south of Nun street, 66x105 feet in size.

—A party of about 75 well known disciples of Isaak Walton returned yesterday afternoon from a trip to the Black Fish Grounds on the tug Jones. They had fine sport and brought home fine catches.

—The Cain women at whose house the Saturday night shooting took place, were before the Mayor yesterday on a charge of conducting a disorderly house. They were dismissed with a sharp lecture to beware of their conduct in the future.

—Minnie Merritt and Mamie Gaskins, two depraved white women who have been denizens of the Dross Neck quarter, were arrested by Officers W. F. Craig and G. R. Holt late last night and lodged in the station house for trial before the Mayor to-day on a charge of vagrancy.

—Lumberton Robesonian: "Mr. C. H. Gattis, of Raleigh, general passenger agent of the Seaboard, spent Sunday here. He advises us that beginning June 15th, the Seaboard will run Pullman parlor car on trains 39 and 40 between Charlotte and Wilmington. This will be a great convenience and it is a long wished for necessity."

—Geo. P. Phillips, white, was arrested yesterday on a warrant from Justice Furlong's court, charging him with obtaining money on false pretences from the C. R., L. & P. Co. It is alleged that Phillips drew money on a contract for concrete work done at the power house for the company by Mr. J. W. Turner, who had Phillips employed on the job. The case will be heard at 10 o'clock this morning.

—B. F. Reaves, Clyde Lee, Will Montgomery and T. B. Tyler, the young men who accompanied John Roderick when the latter was shot on South Front street, submitted to disorderly conduct in the Mayor's court yesterday and were each fined $10 and costs. John Watson, drunk and down, was let off with $5 including costs. Jim New, carrying concealed weapons, was sent over to the higher court.

THE BUDGET SCALED

Board of Audit and Finance Cuts Down Appropriations for the Fiscal Year.

SOME SALARIES REDUCED

Special Meeting Last Night Lasted Until Near Midnight—Estimates Shaved Over $17,000—Only $22,000 For Streets.

The Board of Audit and Finance was in session from 8:30 until after 11 o'clock last night and during that time succeeded in trimming the budget of annual appropriations for the city's expenses for the ensuing fiscal year something over $17,000. Such action was deemed necessary in view of the estimated amount of revenue to be derived during the year. All members of the Board were present and full consideration was given the matter. The Aldermen had appropriated $166,390.75 and the estimated revenue is only $198,500. There are fixed expenses of $58,900 per year in the way of interest coupons, etc., and in addition to that there are a number of suits for settlement and a deficit in the present appropriation for smallpox, and other extraordinaries, which will have to be met. The latter amounts to $14,100 and after trimming the appropriations down to $138,605.35, there is a fund of only something over $6,800 in case of an emergency.

The tax ordinance was adopted just as it came over from the Aldermen. Mr. O'Brien, of the Finance Committee, was before the Board and read from a typewritten copy some amendments he desired made in the clause of the tax ordinance pertaining to liquor dealers, but the Board took the position that Mr. O'Brien would first have to have the matter passed upon by his own Board, after which it would come over in the regular order. One of the changes is understood to be in the classification of the business of the Southern Distilling Company as a bottler at $30 per month instead of a wholesaler at $50 per month. The matter, however, did not come before the Board of Audit and Finance, Mr. O'Brien acquiescing in the opinion that the matter should first come before the Aldermen.

The changes in the budget from the original as sent over by the Board of Audit and Finance, previously published, are as follows:

Reduction of salary of Superintendent of Streets from $1,100 to $900 per year.

Reduction of salary of Chief of Police from $1,350 per year, including uniform, to $1,200, including uniform.

The salaries of executive officers were not disturbed except that in fixing that of the City Clerk and Treasurer at $1,800 and Assistant Clerk and Treasurer at $1,200, it was with the understanding that the compiling of the tax books (not the listing) be done in that office. The appropriation for extra clerical assistance, in the same office during tax gathering time was cut down from $250 to $150 for the pay of an extra clerk three instead of five months.

Added to salaries was $1,000 per year for the pay of Aldermen, the law being mandatory upon the city to pay members of the council.

The $60 per year for compensation to the A. C. L. Front street station gateman was stricken out.

Appropriation for coal, ice, etc., at the City Hall was cut from $600 to $500 and only $1,200 instead of $2,000 was allowed for repairs and alterations to public buildings.

Only $2,000 instead of $2,500 was allowed for a new hook and ladder truck.

Only $22,000 instead of $40,000 was allowed for permanent street improvement, the amount allowed to include the paving of North Fourth street, beyond the bridge.

Salary of the cattle weigher was reduced from $300 to $150 per year, the fees from the office being only a few dollars more than the latter amount.

Pay of drivers in the Sanitary Department was increased to $1.25 per day, the same as others of the same class of employes in the Street Department. Appropriation of $572 for slop carts was stricken out and $300 instead of $150 was allowed for repairs to carts and harness in the Sanitary Department.

The Board refused to concur in the increase in the salary of superintendent of health from $800 to $1,000 per year.

Aldermen O'Brien, Rathjen, Brown and Moore were before the Board, by invitation, to confer about several matters with respect to the departments in which they are interested.

Other business before the Board last night was not important. The amended contract with City Attorney Marsden Bellamy, Jr., was approved and the award of the contract to the T. D. Love Company for terra-cotta pipe was concurred in.

New Insurance Firm.

Messrs. C. L. Dickinson and George Davis have formed an insurance copartnership and will do a fire, life, accident and health business with offices in Room 301, Southern Building. Mr. Davis was formerly with Capt. J. VanB. Metts and Mr. Dickinson was with Mr. C. E. Taylor, Jr., who retires on account of a press of other business. The young men composing the new firm are enterprising, progressive and responsible and will do well.

IN THE SUPERIOR COURT

Charlie Wilkins, Negro Street Waif, Given Twelve Years In Penitentiary—Proceedings Yesterday.

The only case of interest in the Superior Court yesterday was that of Charlie Wilkins, a diminutive colored lad known on the streets as "Happy Hooligan." The urchin was charged with entering the house of Mr. B. J. Jacobs early one Saturday night about six weeks ago and stealing a pocket book and a small amount of money from an unoccupied bed room in the house. Only a few months ago "Happy" was before the court charged with the larceny of some money from a leading lady in a theatrical company playing an engagement at the Academy of Music. The boy has no parents and at the former trial, being only 12 years of age, was bound out by Judge Allen to Capt. Edgar G. Parmele, who has rooms in the Jacobs' residence. The boy remained with Capt. Parmele only long enough to become acquainted with the surroundings about the house and ran away. He returned on the Saturday night mentioned above, took a step ladder from the back porch, climbed into the room and stole the pocket book. Later he was arrested by Capt. Parmele and Police Sergeant Burnett at the market house, on Front street. He confessed everything and a part of the money was recovered. Yesterday he submitted to burglary in the second degree and was sentenced to 12 years in the State's prison.

Hunch Hullen, the negro who was caught in the act of robbing a trunk in broad daylight in a bed room at the residence of Capt. W. L. Beery a few weeks ago, being caught after an exciting chase, pleaded guilty to the charge and was sentenced to five years on the county roads.

John Williams, Chas. Singletary and "Son" Carter, a trio of negro gamblers rounded up in Dross Neck by the police a few weeks ago, pleaded not guilty and went on trial. "Son" Carter squealed on the bunch, however, and was let off with a sentence of two months. The two others were given sentences of 12 months each and an indictment was sent down to the grand jury against one of them for perjury. James Young and Fred. Hooper, two other negroes later arrested by the police, charged with being in the same game, were found not guilty.

Cy Brown, the negro who resisted arrest by Justice Bornemann, Special Officer J. M. Wade and Constable Savage, being fired upon and his clothing set on fire in the melee which followed, was found guilty and sentenced to two months on the roads.

William Davis, colored, charged with larceny was given 12 months on the roads.

Jerry Reaves, on appeal from a justice's court, charged with a simple assault, was found not guilty. He was represented by George L. Peschau, Esq.

Solicitor Duffy will to-day send down a bill against T. F. Bell, charged with the killing of John Roderick. A return upon the same by the grand jury is expected at once.

The trial of Zepheniah White, the colored boy charged with causing the death of the little son of Mr. T. H. Thompson, for which a special venire of 50 has been summoned, will probably begin to-day.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS.

—Mr. J. A. Murphy, of Atkinson, N. C., was here yesterday.

—Messrs. A. E. and J. T. Martin were passengers on the steamer Tar Heel yesterday.

—Mr. Owen Flynn, of Canptuck, Pender county, was in the city yesterday. He reports heavy rains in that section and that the Cape Fear river has overflowed its banks in some places.

—Ex-Congressman John E. Fowler and Mr. Best, prominent truck growers of Clinton, N. C., were here yesterday to ascertain what is being done relative to claims on delayed truck shipments.

—Lumberton Robesonian: "Miss Daisy McEachern arrived last week from Wilmington and it will be a pleasure to her many friends to learn that she will spend the Summer here, visiting Mrs. C. M. Barker, Mrs. Frank Gough and other relatives."

—Messrs. C. F. and Jas. C. MacRae are in Fayetteville whither they were summoned Monday on account of the death of the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. H. MacRae. The little one passed away Sunday night very suddenly. The funeral was conducted from St. John's church Monday evening at 6 o'clock.

W. L. I. Scored Great Success—Rifle Shoot Won By Reserve Corps—Bicycle Races—The Dance.

There can be no doubt of the success of the W. L. I. excursion and the outing at Wrightsville Beach yesterday. All suburban cars during the day were well filled with the infantrymen and their friends and it was after 12 o'clock last night when the last of the pleasure seekers returned to the city, a dance in the pavilion until a late hour having been one of the features. The day was without untoward incident and patrons of the excursion, to use a trite expression, "got their money's worth." Excellent service was given on the cars and large numbers went and returned at their pleasure. The Daughters of the Confederacy responded nobly with their assistance, elegant refreshments having been served during the late afternoon and evening. Music for the dance was furnished by the Hollowbush Orchestra and many couples embraced the first real opportunity to trip the light fantastic by the seashore.

The military feature of the day was a competitive shoot between the "Original Team," now numbered among the Reserve Corps, and a team from the active company. The Reserve Corps team won in a score of 81 to 78, while the prizes for individual records were won: First, by Mr. W. A. Willson, Jr., second, by Mr. N. E. Gillican, both of the Reserve Corps, and Sergeant R. N. Nash, of the active company. The above mentioned and Mr. J. R. Windley, of the Reserve Corps, tied with a score of 19 out of a possible 25 in the competitive shoot and in the match to decide the tie, the award was made as given. Mr. L. E. Hall was the scorer, while Capt. Donald MacRae was judge. The scores in the competitive shoot and to decide the tie between individuals were as follows:

Reserve Corps:

S. M. Boatwright	0	3	0	4	3—10
J. R. Windley	5	3	3	5	3—19
N. E. Gillican	3	3	4	4	5—19
W. A. Willson, Jr.,	4	3	4	4	4—19
E. P. Willard	4	3	4	4	4—19
Total					81

W. L. I. Active:

Davis, J. H.	4	4	0	3	0—11
C. E. McMillan	4	4	5	3	2—18
R. N. Nash	3	4	4	4	4—19
P. Cantwell	3	3	3	4	4—17
G. Davis	2	3	3	5	0—13
Total					78

To Decide Tie:

J. R. Windley	4	3	4	0	4—15
N. E. Gillican	3	4	3	3	4—17
W. A. Willson	3	4	4	4	4—19
R. N. Nash	2	3	3	4	4—16

The Bicycle Races.

The bicycle race, under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A., from Seventeenth and Market streets to the Lighthouse, on the Sound, was won by Mr. C. F. Duffy. The race attracted a large crowd and great interest was manifested. Mr. E. C. Pickard was the starter, while Secretary Chas. Dushan, Mr. Robert Houston and Utley King were the officials at the finish. The riders came in as follows, in the order given, only a few seconds apart: C. F. Duffy, Frank Brittain, Roy Pogue, Ben. Houston, Garland Murphy and Richard Clowe.

SURF BATHING

Now that the surf bathing season is here, not to recall that it has already started off at our seaside with a tragedy in the drowning of the late Mr. W. A. Little, the following from the Savannah News is appropriate and valuable:

"Surf bathing is refreshing and healthful, and, where proper precautions are observed, should be accompanied with scarcely more danger than bathing in a tub. Nevertheless season after season there are reports from the resorts throughout the length of both coasts of bathers being drowned. State Legislatures have taken cognizance of the matter and have passed laws designed to give protection to bathers, but while the laws may have served to diminish the number of accidents, they have not had the effect of putting a stop to them. As a matter of fact, it is doubtful if any law could be devised that would have that effect. The safety of the individual rests primarily with himself or herself. And there is only one sure rule of safety: Never take chances. The bather in the surf who is always sure of a footing on the shingle runs practically no risk of mishap.

"Unfortunately, all bathers cannot be persuaded that it is folly to take risks. Some of them disregard strong ebb currents and go out too far. They find exhilaration in swimming among the rollers for a time, but when they attempt to come ashore they are dismayed to feel themselves being swept further and further away. There are numerous forms of indiscretion in connection with surf bathing, but they are all so patent that it is unneeessary to call attention to them.

"Since it is impossible to get everybody to follow along the lines of safety it is not only advisable but necessary that measures be taken for their protection. That is why the law requires a life-boat and life preservers on the beach. These, however, are not enough. There should be at all times when there are persons in bathing in the surf an expert life-saver on duty with a long line about his waist or shoulders. He should patrol the bathing place, keeping his eyes constantly on the bathers, watching for the slightest sign of distress. Such a human safeguard would be worth a dozen lifeboats depending on unskilled hands to man them.

"Meanwhile, there can be no better advice to the public than this: Don't give up surf bathing; rather indulge more in it. But don't under any circumstances take chances, unless it be in an effort to save life."

The News does not aim to frighten anybody or deter people from indulging in surf bathing. No doubt the writer felt that it was a duty which he owed to put in a word of warning and it is timely, too.

When people go in the surf no one who is not a swimmer should go in deep enough for an ordinary breaker to carry them off their feet. A non-swimmer may have what he thinks is a sure footing, but may be up-set with a breaker and before he regains his footing may be carried on the ebb beyond his depth. Swimmers, and it makes no difference whether they are experts or not, should not fail, before going into the surf, to notice whether the tide is coming in or going out, and particularly to observe which way the ocean current is running. It is either running up or down the beach, and when one gets in trouble he should remember to swim with the current and not against it. In that way he will be aided in getting through the strong backset or tow which is caused by the volume of water from the shore forcing its way back to the ocean. The water running back from the beach is weaker in volume than that which is meeting it from the ocean, with the consequence that the weaker volume takes to the bottom, hence the sensation one feels of being pulled off his feet. The slough or deep channel along the beach at a certain distance out is cut out by the under current, and as the current is stronger as it surges into the slough, bathers generally find most of their trouble right there. Once in trouble, however, swim back with the current, and that does not mean directly to the shore, but either up or down the beach, as can be detected by watching what portion of the beach is catching the breakers.

Sometime during the month of June the body alleged to be that of Paul Jones will be brought over here from Paris. If it be the body of a Frenchman who didn't know how to speak English, it will be all the same, as the American people will show the right spirit in honoring the memory of Paul Jones.

CHANCE TO CAP THE CLIMAX

The return of the Confederate battle flags by Uncle Sam has about been completed. As a further evidence that there is no more hard feeling, let Uncle Sam, as soon as he can get rid of his deficit, return the cotton tax which he compelled Southern planters to pay right after the war when no other product of the soil and sweat of the brow had to yield a tax before it could be sold for bread.

CURRENT COMMENT.

—The standpatters are going to have some difficulty in convincing the country that it is a crime for the Panama commissioners to buy goods on terms that will save the people money.—Washington Post.

—The beef trust officials who are on the way to Europe must have taken steerage passage. Men who have been losing money at the rate Mr. Garfield says the beef trust has could hardly afford to travel first-class.—Kansas City Journal.

—Wouldn't it be funny, and tragic, if Theodore Roosevelt were to carry his socialistic ideas so far that he woke some morning and found himself the head of a new Democratic party? Would Mr. Bryan then jump off the dock?—Brooklyn Eagle.

—The distribution of captured battleflags in about completed. The flags were returned to Southern States as follows: Alabama, 19; Arkansas, 5; Florida, 8; Georgia, 26; Kentucky, 1; Louisiana, 9; Mississippi, 20; Missouri, 2; North Carolina, 33; South Carolina, 14; Tennessee, 8; Texas, 4, and Virginia, 74. It will be seen that North Carolina is next to Virginia in this matter.—Charlotte Observer.

—Some newspaper man with nothing better to do has been figuring up the cost of the President's trip. He finds that since entering the White House, in September, 1901, the President's travels have covered 56,407 miles. He has never gone anywhere except in a private car or a special train, which carried him. So have his guests. The cost of these trips is $118,398.—Charlotte Chronicle.

WEEKLY CROP BULLETIN.

Conditions in North Carolina Week Ending May 29th.

The North Carolina section of the Weather Bureau, at Raleigh, sent out the following report yesterday:

Although considerable improvement in weather conditions was reported in many counties, the past week was unfavorable both for farm work and for the growth of crops over the larger portion of the State. The rainfall was again above normal, occurring from the 22d to 23d and 26th to 27th, thus giving only two or three days on which farm work could proceed. The least precipitation occurred along the northern tier of counties, and in many central ones, where a large amount of work was accomplished; in some extreme northeast counties there are even some reports of suffering for lack of moisture. In nearly all southern counties the rain was nearly continuous, giving very little opportunity for work. Although the mean temperature for the week, about 70 degrees, was nearly normal, the temperature continued quite low, especially at night, until Saturday and Sunday which were warmer; as regards the progress of vegetation the low night temperatures were quite unfavorable, checking growth of all crops.

Where conditions permitted farmers have been very busy during the week chopping cotton, cultivating corn, transplanting tobacco and sweet potato slips, and finishing the planting of corn; crops that have been cleaned look fairly well, but very many fields are still very grassy. A week of warm, dry, sunny weather is needed.

The work of planting cotton was so much delayed that many fields intended for that crop will be used for other purposes, so that planting cotton is practically finished; chopping is well advanced but by no means completed; stands are regular, but low temperatures continue to prevent rapid growths, plants are very small for the season, and are yellow in many fields; much late planted cotton is not yet up. Upland corn is in fair condition, but most of this crop is badly in need of cultivation; its growth also has been checked by low temperatures; the stands have been injured by the ravages of cut worms; most lowlands have not yet been planted. The rain Friday gave a very favorable opportunity for transplanting tobacco, and this task will be completed the coming week. Tobacco is doing well; there are few complaints of injury by insects or otherwise. Wheat and oats are not as thrifty as formerly, suffering in a number of places from excessive rains and rust, but as a rule these crops are in excellent condition; in a few southern counties wheat and oats are beginning to ripen. Peanuts have come up nicely to good stands. Planting rice is under way. Gardens and vegetables are thrifty. In regard to Irish potatoes it appears that the growth of tops is very thrifty but the tubers relatively few; digging and shipping potatoes are under way. Setting sweet potatoes continues. Melons are doing well. The crops of blackberries and huckleberries will be large. Many correspondents continue to report that fruits, especially apples, are falling from the trees.

Rains reported: Goldsboro 0.50, Lumberton 1.86, Newbern 1.12, Weldon 0.14, Hatteras 4.90, Wilmington 1.60, Nashville 0.17, Grensboro 2.60, Raleigh 1.30, Moncure 1.40, Lexington 1.78, Pomona 2.00, Ramseur 1.34, Charlotte 0.70, Asheville 2.30, Marion 1.00.

GREAT LOSS TO EDUCATION.

Death of President C. C. Cox, of Southern Female College.

Rev. J. A. Smith has just received a letter from College Park, Ga., conveying to him the sad intelligence of the death of his beloved friend, Prof. C. C. Cox, the distinguished president of the Southern Female College, located at College Park. He was one of the best known educators in the United States, and to-day the entire Southland especially joins her sister State in mourning the loss of her distinguished son.

About ten years ago Prof. Cox visited the home of one of his pupils at Fair Bluff, N. C., and those who were permitted to hear him will never forget the splendid addresses he delivered in behalf of the sacred cause of education and religion. At the request of his life long friend, now a resident of this city, the Star publishes the following beautiful tribute from the columns of a georgia paper:

"It is rarely in this straining and commercial age that one finds a sweeter, and purer and sunnier spirit than that of President Chas C. Cox. He was absolutely without malice and without guile—one of the pure in heart who has doubtless ere this seen his God. One of the rarely gentle cultured personalities that seemed a friend and comrade to all nature, and ordained by Providence to train and educate the youth to whom his beautiful example was as helpful and inspiring as his ripe and accurate culture was leading and instructive.

"None knew the president of Cox College but to love him; none named him put in praise. There was about him an inner light of beauty, both of mind and of spirit, which made his countenance radiant and his life a chapter of the sun. In feeble health and broken body he has battled for several years with pain and suffering, but has borne himself so gently, so bravely, and so cheerily, that he has made even suffering beautiful, and the sorrow that encompasses his parting is softened by a memory that is without stain and without discord.

Flowers, poetry, sentiment, religion and gentle humor were the elements mixed in Charles C. Cox's life which made it a chord of melody and sweetness amid the finer harmonies of his little world.

"He sleeps at LaGrange to-day under more flowers than perhaps ever covered the coffin-lid of a private citizen in Georgia. But none of the flowers with which loving hands have strewn his last repose are sweeter than the memories of his tender, beautiful and unselfish life.

The Secret of Good Coffee

Even the best housekeepers cannot make a good cup of coffee without good material. Dirty, adulterated and queerly blended coffee such as unscrupulous dealers shovel over their counters won't do. But take the pure, clean, natural flavored

LION COFFEE, the leader of all package coffees—the coffee that for over a quarter of a century has been daily welcomed in millions of homes—and you will make a drink fit for a king in this way:

HOW TO MAKE GOOD COFFEE.

Use LION COFFEE, because to get best results you must use the best coffee.
Grind your LION COFFEE rather fine. Use ½a tablespoonful to each cup, and one extra for the pot." First mix it with a little cold water, enough to make a thick paste, and add white of an egg (if egg is to be used as a settler), then follow one of the following rules:

1st. WITH BOILING WATER. Add boiling water, and let it boil THREE MINUTES ONLY. Add a little cold water and set aside five minutes to settle. Serve promptly.

2d. WITH COLD WATER. Add your cold water to the paste and bring it to a boil. Then set aside, add a little cold water, and in five minutes it's ready to serve.

DON'TS { 3 Don't boil it too long. Don't let it stand more than ten minutes before serving. Don't use water that has been boiled before.

TWO WAYS TO SETTLE COFFEE.

1st. With Eggs. Use part of the white of an egg, mixing it with the ground LION COFFEE before boiling.

2d. With Cold Water instead of eggs. After boiling add a dash of cold water, and set aside for eight or ten minutes, then serve through a strainer.

Insist on getting a package of genuine LION COFFEE, prepare it according to this recipe and you will only use LION COFFEE in future. (Sold only in 1 lb. sealed packages.)

(Lion-head on every package.)
(Save these Lion-heads for valuable premiums.)

Lee and Grant.

An incident worth remembering occurred at the funeral of Gen. Lee, just after the services were concluded at the church, says the Washington Star. Lieut. U. S. Grant, as adjutant of the parade, was stationed before the church door, and, from his horse, directed the honorary pallbearers to their places in the double line through which the casket was to be borne to the caisson. Among this escort of civilians were several old Confederate vetreans wearing the uniform in which the dead general won his fame as a soldier. These officers wore on their collars the insignia that in the Confederate service indicated the rank of captain. Immediately, in accordance with the military training which requires a junior officer to dismount before addressing his superior, the young lieutenant sprang from his horse, and, on foot, assigned Lee's old comrades to position. The action possessed no military value. It was simply an inherited respect for the army of gray shadows. But those who remembered the magnanimity of the boys' grand father at Appomattox must have been touched by this second coming together of a Grant and a Lee.—Savannah News.

Saved by Dynamite.

Sometimes a flaming city is saved by dynamiting a space that the fire can't cross. Sometimes, a cough hangs on so long, you feel as if nothing but dynamite would cure it. Z. T. Cray, of Calhoun, Ga., writes: "My wife had a very aggragated cough, which kept her awake nights. Two physicians could not help her; so she took Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs, and Colds, which eased her cough, gave her sleep, and finally cured her." FOR SIX MONTHS $2.00

Positively, no subscription will be taken at the reduced rates for a period less than six months. For one month the price will be, as heretofore, $1.25 for three months; or, fifty cents for one month.

This offer, as will be noted, is for a limited period only, and is made for the purpose of giving those who appreciate the value of a daily newspaper an opportunity to read the STAR for six months, or more, at a cost of about one and a quarter cents per copy, and then determine whether or not they will continue their subscription at the regular price.

No name will be entered on our books under this offer unless the order is accompanied with the cash.

While this proposition is made primarily to secure new subscribers, old subscribers outside the city may avail themselves of its advantages at the reduced rate provided they pay all arrearages and for not less than six months in advance.

On account of the heavy expense attached to our city circulation department this offer does not apply to city subscribers.

Sample copies mailed free to any address.

Note the conditions of this offer carefully to avoid mistakes.

Election Notice!

The Board of Commissioners of New Hanover County, in accordance with the provisions of an Act of the General Assembly of North Carolina, passed at its 1905 Session, entitled, "An Act to Empower the Board of Commissioners of New Hanover County to Issue Bonds for Road Improvements," and by virtue of the power therein given, do hereby call, and give notice of, an election to be held by the qualified electors of New Hanover County, on Wednesday June seventh (7), 1905, to determine whether New Hanover shall issue Fifty Thousand dollars ($50.000.00) of its bonds, with interest coupons attached, to continue and complete the repairing, constructing and improving the public roads in said County.

At said election the ballots tendered and cast by the qualified electors shall have written, or printed, on them, "For continuing and completing the construction and improvement of the public roads of the County," or, "Against the continuing and completing the construction and improvement of the public roads of the County."

All qualified electors who favor the issue of said bonds shall vote "For continuing and completing the construction and improvement of the public roads of the County," and all qualified electors, who are opposed to the issue of said bonds, shall vote, "Against the continuing and completing the construction and improvement of the public roads of the County."

For the purposes of this election, as authorized by said Act, the said Board of Commissioners have ordered and do hereby order a new registration for said election, and the following are designated as the polling places in the several Townships and Wards, and the persons hereinafter named have been appointed as the Registrars and Judges of Election in said several Townships and Wards, to wit:

SPIRITS TURPENTINE.

—The First Baptist church at Raleigh is to be enlarged, and $18,000 is to be expended for this purpose, the congregation have outgrown the church.

—Raleigh Post: The shipment of dewberries has begun from Carthage and Cameron. The crops are fine and after an experience of two or three years this industry is an assured success.

—Samuel H. Reed, a wealthy and well known citizen of Ashville, who died Monday afternoon, is the seventh member of the Reed family to die in Barncombe county within a year.

—At Raleigh next Monday bids will be opened for the completion of the second floor of the main domitory at the Soldiers' Home so as to provide 20 more rooms and thus accommodate 40 veterans. The cost will be about $10,000.

—Hon. John Sharp Williams, of Mississippi, leader of the Democratic minority in the House of Representatives, with Mrs. Williams, arrived in Asheville Saturday for a visit, and for the benefit of Mrs. Williams' health. Representative and Mrs. Williams are guests of the Margo Terrace and expect to remain for some time.

—The Secretary of State has granted a charter to the Columbia Car Standard Company, of Tyrell county, to own patents for car standards, for holding logs, etc., and to manufacture the same, the capital stock being $100,000; to the Forsyth Hotel Company, the stockholders in which are F. H. Fries and other prominent men of Winston-Salem, and the authorized capital stock being $200,000. The purpose of the company is to build a hotel at Winston-Salem.

—Nat Crump, the outlaw and self-confessed assassin, who now lies in Davidson county jail, is in a precarious condition. He is believed to be fatally shot. Arrangements have been made for taking his deposition concerning the shooting of Clay Grubb and Clarence Thompson near Salisbury a week ago. Henry Charles and Dave Leonard, Davidson county men who Crump alleges assisted in the plan to assassinate Grubb and Thompson, have left the country and their whereabouts is unknown.

—Raleigh correspondence Charlotte Observer, May 29: Senator D. J. Aaron, of Mount Olive, is here and appeared before Governor Glenn to-day in behalf of Dan Teachey, for whom commutation of death sentence is asked. Ex-Goxernor Aycock, N. G. Rouse, and Messrs. Loftin and Parser appear before the Governor and urged that the death sentence of Will Exum be commuted to life imprisonment. Exum is under sentence to be hanged June 119h at Kinston upon conviction of the murder of his step-son, Guy Walston. The grounds upon which commutation is asked is that the killing was under such conditions as not to justify capital punishment for it.

—Seigfried Roebling, the 14-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Roebling, of Ashville who disappeared from his home there a week ago, and who was located in Knoxville, Tenn., Saturday night, returned to Asheville Sunday morning in company with Judge Thos. A. Jones, of Asheville, who went to the Tennessee city searching for the missing lad. Upon arrival at Asheville young Roebling was driven immediately to the home of his parents on Cumberland avenue. En route to Asheville Seigfried talked to Judge Jones quite freely of his experiences and was not at all reluctant to return. In fact, he has had a pretty tough trip of it and was ready to give up the life of a hobo for the luxuries of his Asheville home. John A. Roebling, the boy's father, said Seigfried had a tough time of it; that he left Asheville with $1.90 and walked and rode freight trains to Knoxville; that he slept in churches and school houses en route and lived on two loaves of bread for three days at Knoxville; he pawned his watch, indulged in the luxury of a bath, and got a job that paid 50 cents per day. During the time the boy was in Knoxville he slept in the Court House and in the parks. Seigfried told his father that the only reason he left was to avoid school duties. The New York young man who tried to obtain $50 from Col. Washington Roebling, claiming to be Seigfried, was sent to Blackwell's Island for six months.

TESTS PATIENCE.

The Most Patient Wilmington Citizen Must Show Annoyance at Times.

Nothing spoils a good disposition,
Nothing taxes a man's patience,
Like any itchiness of the skin.
Itching Piles almost drive you crazy.
All day it makes you miserable,
All night it keeps you awake,
Itch! Itch! Itch! with no relief.
Just the same with Eczema.
Can hardly keep from scratching it.
You would do so, but you know it makes it worse.
Such miseries are daily decreasing.
People are learning they can be cured.
Learning the merits of Doan's Ointment.
Plenty of proof that Doan's Ointment will cure Piles, Eczema or any Itchiness of the skin.
Read the testimony of a Wilmington citizen.

H. Cronenberg, Photographer, of 119½ Market streets, says: "I used Doan's Ointment, and it did its work promptly and permanently. I had a rash all over me, and no one knows how I suffered. It was like being in the infernal region and I could get no relief. I did not dare scratch, because that made it worse. I tried everything but only to be disappointed. Some one told me about Doan's Ointment and I procured a box at R. R. Bellamy's drug store. I went home and applied some of the ointment, and I can say it brought the first relief I had had for a long time. I only add that it is a preparation of great merit."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

KEEP YOUR HEAD UNCOVERED.

The Constant Wearing of a Hat Propogates Dandruff Germs.

There are many men who wear their hats practipally all the time when awake, and are blessed with a heavy shock of hair; yet if the scalps of these same men once became infested with dandruff germs, the parasites would multiply all the quicker for lack of air. Baldness would ensue as the final result. Newbro's Herpicide kills these germs and stimulates unhealthy hair to abundant growth. Herpicide is a pleasant hair dressing as well as a dandruff cure and contains not an atom of injurious substance. Sold by leading druggists. With Fresh Peaches.

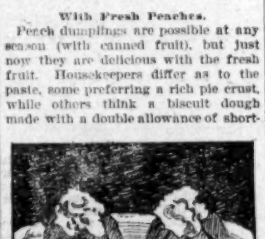
Peach dumplings are possible at any season (with canned fruit), but just now they are delicious with the fresh fruit. Housekeepers differ as to the paste, some preferring a rich pie crust, while others think a biscuit dough made with a double allowance of shortening is best. In either case the paste should be rolled out one-third of an inch thick and be cut into six inch squares or circles. On each piece place a peeled peach and draw up the paste smoothly round it, pinching the edges securely together. Place some distance apart on a flat pan and bake for forty minutes in a quick oven. They may, if preferred, be steamed for half an hour, then placed in the oven until dried and lightly colored. The hard sauce which is served with them is made by creaming two tablespoonfuls of butter and gradually beating into it one cupful of powdered sugar and one teaspoonful of vanilla. This is plied on a fancy dish and set on ice until chilled.—Table Talk.



PEACH DUMPLINGS.

Character and Independence.

Every self respecting woman holds herself in proper esteem and believes that she is an independent entity, with rights and privileges which others are bound to recognize. She conducts herself as if she was a force and factor in life and occupies a prominent place in the world. This self respect is essential to the success of all. It is only when carried to the extent of making one unduly conceited that it should be frowned upon. We like to see a self respecting man or woman going through life as if every action was ordered by a clear, intelligent mind of some particular purpose. If the person did not show this power of self importance and assurance nobody else would show respect or esteem.—Household Ledger.

WARM WIRELETS.

James Britt, pugilist, has signed with the Hayes Valley Club, of San Francisco, to fight the winner of the Hanlon-Corbett battle which is to come off in July.

—In a letter to counsel for A. S. Lanier, late assistant clerk of the State Corporation Commission, the commission announces that Lanier has been removed from all connection with that body. Lanier's resignation had been requested by the commission because charges made against him by the Chief Clerk of the Commission, alleging use of his official position for private purposes, and his resignation was refused by Lanier who sternuously denies the charges and announces that he will sue the Chief Clerk for damages.

Spiced Grapes.

Spiced grapes are an excellent relish. Pulp seven pounds of grapes and cook until the seeds can be removed by a sieve, put into the kettle, add five pounds of good brown sugar, a quart of vinegar, a tablespoonful of cloves, three of cinnamon, add the skins and cook for an hour or longer if wanted to be very thick.

Acquired Skill.

Methodically the angry wife hurled the cup and saucer at her husband. Seizing the meat platter, she batted the salt cellar and pepper holder at him and followed with a volley of sugar bowl, butter dishes, cream mug and knives and forks.

Seeking safety in the hall, the bruised husband mused to himself:

"I knew that woman harbored ulterior motives when she devoted so much time to the study of pingpong."—Baltimore American.

Breton and Welsh.

Proof that the people of Wales and the people of Brittany, in France, come from the same parent stock is given every autumn when Breton boys go over to England to sell onions from their home fields. In Cornwall and Wales their native speech is readily understood. Armorican, the old language of Brittany, the ancient Cornish and Welsh—and for that matter Erse and Gaelic—are all closely allied languages, members of the Celtic group. Breton and Welsh are very much alike.

Why So Many Fail.

Many people never get to the front in the poultry business because they struggle and work from year to year only to be beaten again at the shows and by practically some beginner, but finally after losing five or ten years' time they find that their mistake was in always buying something cheap instead of paying a little more and getting good foundation stock. The quicker a man buys good birds to breed from the sooner he is started right in the fancy and the sooner he will get a share of the business.—T. B. King in American Poultry Journal.

Selling Turkeys.

The largest and best turkeys bring the most money. But don't sell them all because you are greedy for money and keep inferior stock for breeders. The breeding stock should be selected from earliest hatches. Be sure they are healthy in every way. They should not be overgrown. Medium sized turkeys, with well rounded bodies and large through the breast, have strong vital organs and will be found satisfactory for breeding the coming season.

WORLD'S GREATEST NAVAL BATTLE

The Japanese Victory in Korean Straits, May 27th-28th, Absolutely Overwhelming

ONLY 2 RUSSIAN SHIPS SAFE

Every Battleship of Rojestvensky Sunk or Captured—Russian Commander and Two Other Admirals are Prisoners.

According to the latest reports from Vice Admiral Togo to his government, the loss to the Russians in ships sunk or captured now numbers twenty-two, while full particulars are not yet known. The Admiral says that none of his big fighting ships was seriously damaged. Interesting news comes Vladivostok, sent direct by the correspondent of the Associated Press, who report the arrival there of the protected cruiser Almaz, say they witnessed the sinking of two Japanese battlships and that two Japanese cruisers were listing badly and seemed about to sink when the fog obscured further view of the battle. There seems to be great confusion as to the fate of Vice Admiral Rojestvensky. It is reported that he arrived at Vladivostok in a torpedo boat, the Nueny, badly wounded, and that his wife has has received a telegram from him, while a report received from Tokio late Tuesday at the Japanese legation at Washington says, he was captured on board the Russian destroyer Biedvody with another admiral, both severely wounded, and with several staff officers of his flagship, the Knaiz Souvaroff, the sinking of which is confirmed by the officers of the Almaz.

Togo Waited for His Prey.

Tokio, May 30.—4 P. M.—Beyond the results, little is known here of Admiral Togo's stunning victory over Admiral Rojestvensky. Rojestvensky reached Quelpart island, Korea, early Saturday and headed for the Tsu islands. The exact number of vessels in his fleet is not clear but he had his main fighting vessels with a number of light cruisers and transports. The disposition of the Japanese fleet appears to have been an ideal one.

Admiral Togo had waited for weeks in the vicinity of the Tsu islands, refusing to be lured away and to forfeit his advantage. The inner line was held by Admiral Togo with the battleships and Vice Admiral Kamimura with the cruisers. Rear Admiral Kataoka with the light squadron first attacked Rojestvensky. The order and circumstances of the attack are not clear. According to one report Kamimura went outside the straits and foiled Rojestvensky, preventing his retreat. When Rojestvensky encountered Admiral Togo there appears to have been a running fight to the north eastward Saturday afternoon. There was a series of desperate and successful torpedo attacks Saturady night and a resumption of the battle on Sunday, Togo pressing the Russian fleet toward the southeastern coast of Korea.

The battle is regarded as the greatest modern naval fight. Practically all the information received came in brief wireless messages, transmitted, when possible, after the fights and during the pursuit. Admiral Togo has gone northward and the navy department does not expect extended reports until the fighting is finished. Reports thus far received indicate that Admiral Togo obtained a victory without loss or serious damage of a single battleship or cruiser. His casualties are not reported but are insignificant.

It is believed that the Russian casualties are heavy although the Japanese appear to have rescued a large number. The captured ships with prisoners and wounded are arriving at Sasebo. A number of Russian prisoners were landed on Tsu island. Three hundred believed to be from the transport Ural have been landed on the Iwami coast. The political effect of the battle and its influenc eupon commerce has been already felt. At noon today the Navy Department notified shipping men that the way was free. There was a scene of wild enthusiasm on the stock exchange this afternoon. Prices in some instances were the highest since the war began. The Emperor, Princes and Ministers are dispatching congratulations to Admiral Togo, who it is expected will be given high rank and other imperial honors. Already a popular idol, he has become a demigod in the popular enthusiasm. It is also expected that Vice Admiral Kamimura, Rear Admiral Kataoka and other commanders will be honored.

Foreign observers sharply criticise Admiral Rojestvensky and Rear Admiral Nebogatoff despite the meagreness of the knowledge of the details and conditions which governed them. Admiral Rojestvensky is criticised for not sending his light cruisers and transports by the northern straits, his failure to arrange a co-operation with the Vladivostok squadron and his battle formation which consisted of all the strong ships on the starboard column and the weaker craft on the port column. Rear Admiral Nebogatoff's courage, in surrendering on Sunday, apparently without a fight, is questioned although it is admitted that his ships were evidently badly battered Saturday.

Russian Flagship Sunk.

Tokio, May 30.—It is officially announced that Admiral Rojestvensky has been captured, and that he is seriously wounded.

It is also officially announced that the flagship Kniaz Souvaroff, the battleships Oslabya, Navarin and the Sissoi Veliky were sunk. The cruiser Almaz was disabled.

Rojestvensky Badly Wounded.

London, May 30.—A dispatch from St. Petersburg to Reuters Telegram Company repeats the information sent by the Associated Press that Admiral Rojestvensky arrived at Valdivostok on board the torpedo boat destroyer Buiny at 6 P. M., May 29th. It adds that the admiral is seriously wounded in the head, back and chest.

All Battiships Captured or Sunk.

Washington, May 30.—The State Department has received the following dispatch from Tokio:

"Tokio, May 30.—It is officially announced that all of the Russian battleships have been sunk except the Orel and Nicolai I., which were captured. Admiral Rojestvensky, Voelkersam and Nebogatoff are all prisoners."

Four Ships in Japs' Hands.

Tokio, May 30.—2:40 P. M.—The captured Russian battleship Orel arrived at the Maizuru navy yard at noon to-day. The battleships Nicolai I., and Admiral Seniavin and the coast defense iron clad Admiral Apraxine, reached Sesabo at 11 o'clock to-day. It is reported that the Orel and Nikolai I., are slightly damaged.

Russia Gets Reports.

St. Petersburg, May 30.—4:58 P. M.—The admiralty officially admits the sinking of the battleships Kniaz, Souvaroff, Borodino and Oslabya, the repair ship Kamtschatka and the (cruiser?) Orel. The loss of these vessels was definitel established by Captain Chagin of the cruiser Almaz. No statement regarding the ships captured was made.

The war vessel Orel which the Russian admiralty admits was sunk probably was the cruiser Orel, since it seems clear that the battleship of that name was captured and is a Sasebo, and St. Petersburg has reported the arrival of the hospital ship Arel at Vladivostok.

St. Petersburg, May 30.—The Russian hospital ship Orel which was with Admiral Rojestvensky's fleet has arrived at Vladivostok.

Blown Up By Mines.

Tokio, May 30.—6 A. M.—Captain Roshinoff, commander of the Russian armored cruiser Admiral Nakhimoff, and other survivors have been brought to Moji. The Admiral Nakhimoff was sunk near Tsu Island Saturday, seemingly by a mine or a submarine vessel. Captain Roshinoff says that his vessel was entering the straits with the fleet. Suddenly there was a tremendous explosion and the Admiral Nakhimoff speedily sank, carry a majority of her crew to death. Captain Roshinoff reached a damaged steam launch and was picked up on Sunday. The other survivors used life belts and were rescued by fishermen. It is impossible to yet determine the particular manner of the destruction of the individual Russian ships. It is reported that submarine vessels and specially laid mines were used, but a satisfactory confirmation of this is not obtainable.

Attacked by Swarms of Torpedo Boats.

Tsarkoseloff, Russia, May 30.—6:20 P. M.—The dispatch received by the Emperor from Vladivostok containing details of the battle in the Straits of Korea, announced heavy losses, according to which the squadron commanded by Rear Admiral Nebogatoff was attacked by a swarm of torpedo boats and all the ships were either sunk or captured.

The main squadron commanded by Admiral Rojestvensky was attacked by Admiral Togo and lost two ships, the others broke through, Rojestvensky, it is reported, then sent his fast light cruisers ahead, the heavier fighting ships remaining behind. They were attacked by Admiral Kamimura. The Emperor was greatly distressed at the news.

Latest Japanese Report.

Washington, May 30.—The Japanese legation to-night gave out the following cablegram from Tokio:

Fifth report from Togo received afternoon May 30.

"The main force of our combined fleet upon accepting surrender of the remaining Russian main force near Liancourt rocks in the afternoon of May 28, as already reported, stopped pursuit and while engaged in the disposition of surrendered ships found in a southwestern direction the Admiral Oshakoff, a coast defense ship. Thereupon Iwate and Yakumo were immediately dispatched in pursuit and invited her to surrender but she refused and was sunk at 6 P. M. Her crew of over 300 men were rescued.

"Cruiser Dmitri Donski was also found in the northwestern direction at 5 P. M., and was immediately overtaken and fired upon vigorously by our fourth division and second destroyer flotilla. She was attacked that night by the second destroyer flotilla and the next morning was found aground on the southeastern shore of Urleung Island off Korean coast.

Our destroyer Sazanami captured toward the evening of May 27th in the south of Urelung, Rojestvensky and an other admiral severely wounded, together with eighty Russians including staff officers from the flagship Prince Suvaroff which was sunk at 5:29 P. M., on May 27th. They were all taken prisoners. Our cruiser Chitoz while cruising to the northward on the morning of May 28 found and sunk another Russian destroyer. Our cruiser Niitaka and destroyer Murakumo attacked also at noon on May 28th a Russian destroyer which finally went aground. According to various reports hitherto received and statements of prisoners the result of the battle from May 27 to May 29 is as follows:

"Prince Suvaroff, Alexandre III., Borodino, Dmitri Donskoi, Admiral Nakimoff, Monomach, Jemtchug, Admiral Oushakoff, one converted cruiser and two destroyers, sunk.

"Nicholai I., Orel, Admiral Apraxine, Admiral Seniavin and destroyer Biedovy captured. According to the prisoners the Osiyabia sunk about 3 P. M., and the Navarin also was sunk.

"Almaz on May 27 was observed in a disabled and sinking condition but her final fate is yet unknown. The full particulars regarding the injury to our ships are not yet in hand, but so far as I could ascertain none were seriously injured, all being still engaged in operations. The whole casualties are not yet ascertained. Casualties of the first division are little over four hundred. Prince Yorhite is in excellent health, Admiral Misu, slight wounded May 27th.

"Sixth report, received the afternoon of May 30th. The loss of Oslyabia and Navarin confirmed. Sissoi Veliky also definitely reported to have sunk on the mroning of May 28th.

"Official statement of Russian losses so far ascertained:

"Following six battleships sunk: Prince Suvaroff, Imperator-Alexander III, Bordino, Osyabia, Sassoi Veliky and Navarin.

"Following five cruisers sunk: Admiral Nakimoff, Dmitri Donski, Vladimir Monomach, Svietlana and Jemtchug.

"Coast defense ship Admiral Oushakoff sunk. Two service ships Kamtchatka and three destroyers also sunk.

"Two battleships Orel and Imperator Nicholai I., two coast defense ships, General Admiral Apraxine and Admiral Seniavin and one destroyer, Biedovy, captured.

"Thus Russians lost altogether twenty-two ships, the aggregate tonnage whereof amounts to 153,411 tons, beside cruiser Almaz suspected to have sunk."

Only Two Ships Reach Vladivostok.

Vladivostok, May 30.—4:30 P. M.—Two ships alone of Vice Admiral Rojestvensky's powerful flotilla, the swift cruiser Almaz, and the torpedo boat destroyer Grozny lie at anchor here today in the curving harbor of the Golden Horn, they having separated from the fleet in the early stage of the battle which began in the Korea Straits Saturday and headed in obedience to orders with full speed to Vladivostok. Up to 4 o'clock this afternoon no other vessels of the Baltic fleet had yet arrived and the signal stations at Askold and Rimsykorsakoff islands reported none in say that both fleets had already sussight.

War Must Go On.

Washington, May 30.—Until some word of peace comes out of Tsakoe Selo Nippon has but to fight on." This epigramatic remark of Mr. Takahira the Japanese minister made to-night with the details of victory of the Japanese fleet before him accurately set forth not only his opinion, but it is believed that the Washington and neutral governments represented here regarding the effect of the battle upon Russia's policy. Whether Count Cassini, the Russian ambassador, will be the bearer of the fateful word when he sees the President to-morrow or Thursday remains to be seen, but the Ambassardor in a conversation with a corresdondent of the Associated Press to-night was more emphatic than at any time since the war began in the declaration that the war would go on indefinitely. While admitting that he would see the President in the next few days, and have a long conference on the general situation, the ambassador strongly discouraged any hopes of an early peace.

"Perhaps after Llo Yang," said Count Cassini, "there was a possibility of peace. I will not say there was not an idea of peace at that time in certain quarters, but now after crushdefeat? Never, The Japanese talk of indemnity. Russia can better use this money in the building of another fleet. Certainly this is not the time when Russia can afford to take the question of peace.

It is the apparent determination of Russia to continue in the face of disastrous defeats on land and sea which discourages the Washington government at this time from taking any positive steps toward offering assistance to the belligerents to an understanding.

Soon after the President returned from New York this evening Secretary Taft called at the White House, and was in conference with him for several hours.

The President and the Secretary discussed the outlook for peace. It is realized that the crushing character of the defeat gives to the President an opportunity with entire propriety to offer his service to the St. Petersburg government is establishing communication with Tokio, but until it can be learned that such an offer will probably be successful this government is not expected to act.

Rojestvensky's Fate.

St. Petersburg, May 30.—6:40 P. M.—Admiral Rojestvensky has arrived at Vladivostok on board the torpedo boat destroyer Buiny. During the battle he sustained a wound in the head.

Admiral Durnovo, a member of the council of the Empire and Superintendents of posts and telegraphs under the Minister of the Interior, has received a dispatch from his son, who is in command of the Buiny, describing fully how his commander-in-chief, Admiral Rojestvensky, was saved. The Admiral was washed off the deck of the deck of the Knaiz Souvaroff just before the flagship foundered, and was picked up by the torpedo boat destroyer Buiny.

Other private dispatches from Vladicostok says the Russians lost twelve warships sund and captured during the engagement. According to these reports the Japanese torpedo boats played the principal role in the defeat of the Russian fleet. They were sent in for action again and again under a perfect hail of shot from the Russian rapid firing guns. More than one half of the Japanese flotilla of torpedo boats was sunk. The protected cruiser Jemtchug, reported sund in the Tokio dispatches, has arrived at Vladvostok.

St. Petersburg, May 30.—The report that the Kniaz Souvaroff flagship of the Russian fleet, which was defeated by the Japanese in the Straits of Korea was sunk and that Admiral Rojestvensky was wounded and placed on board a torpedo boat destroyed is confirmed. The whereabouts of the destroyer is not known.

London, May 31.—The St. Petersburg correspondent of the Standard asserts that Mme. Rojestvensky, wife of the commander of the Russian fleet, has received a telegram from Vladvostoff signed by her husband, saying that he had arrived there on board the cruiser Amalz, and that he was severely wounded in back and abdomen.

Officers of the Almaz and Grozny sustained terrible loss when the Almez and the Grozny broke through the hostile line.

Of the Japanese, two battleships had gone before their eyes and two cruisers, their sterns high out of the water, seemed ready to plunge foremost to the bottom of the sea.

The Russian fleet, they say, was even in a sadder plight. Rojestvensky's flagship, the Kniaz Souvaroff, and her sistership the Borodino and the cruisers Oslyabia and Ural were utterly destroyed, and when the fog closed down and hid the scene of battle from sight of the speeding ships, a third great Russian battleship, the Alexander III, seemed in sore distress but limping northward putting up a gallant fight against throngs of torpedo boats and still continuing her attacks on the cruisers of the island Empire. Torpedo boats were also clinging round the other ships of the fleet like angered wasps, separate flotillas darting in again and again to launch their weapons.

The Almaz which arrived at her anchorage here Monday evening bears scars of the battle. Her mizzen mast is shot away and one of her smoke stacks is pierced by a cannon shot. But the Grozny though engaged for several hours in a running fight at short range with a large Japanese destroyer, shows no signs of the fray. After her commander Captain Andriffaki had been wounded and an officer and three men had been killed, the Gronzy succeeded in sinking her opponent with a lucky placed shot and reached Vladivostok without further adventure at 11 o'clock this morning.

The captain and seven officers were killed during the battle. Two officers were wounded and two jumped overboard. Three other officers were drowned.

"We could see our battleships to the northward enveloped by the Japanese. Seemingly they were badly damaged."

As the Almaz dropped anchor excitement beyond description seized the thronging spectators who with frantic "huzzas" tossed high their caps. Citizens embraced each other and danced jubilantly upon the pier while the crews of the ships in the harbor joined in wild cheering.

In a trice the boats were dropped from the davits and in a moment the officers of the cruisers and torpedo boats in the harbor and the military officials from the fortress were swarmingon board the Almaz to learn news of the fight.

The story was short. According to the officers of the Almaz the fleet under Rojestvensky met the Japanese in the straits of Korea near Tsu Islands and the opposing fleets immediately closed in. Being lightly armored, the Almaz as had been ordered by Admiral Rojestvensky before the battle, separated itself from the main fleet at the first opportunity and headed for Vladivostok soon after the commencement of the action but not too soon to observe that the losses on both sides in the Titanic combat were great.

Early in the battle, an officer of the Almaz while watching Rojestvensky's flagship, the battleship Kniaz Souvaroff for a signal, saw the flagship shudder from stem to stern as if under a blow from a gigantic hammer and hesitate in her course, while the waves rose high from her armored sides. Then she commenced to list and sink.

The officers believe that the debut of the submarine boat as an effective agent in naval warfare, or perhaps a large mine caused the disaster to the Kniaz Souvaroff. The damage, however, was so extensive that the flagship soon went down leaving the deck officers and many of the crew struggling in the waves.

One of the Russian torpedo boats either the destroyer Buiny or the Brazi ran in and picked up a number of the swimmers, one of whom was recognized through a glass as Admiral Rojestvensky.

Under a gruelling attack from the Japanese warships aided by torpedo boats, mines and submarines, the Borodino, Oslyabia and Ural were placed out of action and followed the flagship to the bottom.

The fog which had raised and lowered intermittently during the morning began to settle down again and the distance of the Almaz which had not succeeded in disengaging herself in the combat from the struggling made it difficult for her to see clearly, but the officers are positive that they saw battleships disappear beneath the sea before their eyes and that two Japanese cruisers appeared on the point of sinking.

FEDERAL HEROES ARE REMEMBERED

National Decoration Day Observed in a Number of Cities in the South.

ROOSEVELT MAKES SPEECH

Flowers Scattered Upon Tennessee River in Memory of Naval Heroes—Interesting Incident of the Day at Chattanooga.

By Wire to the Morning Star.

New York, May 30.—In a stirring address delivered at the unveiling of a big statue of General Henry W. Slocum, in Brooklyn to-day, President Roosevelt paid a splendid tribute to the men who composed the Northern armies, but did not forget those of the Southern hosts. Most notable in his speech was an expression of his hope that as the nation increased in strength there would come a corresponding increase in its sense of responsibility which should prevent its people from either injuring or insulting other people; his declaration that the surest way for a nation to invite disaster to be opulent, aggressive and unarmed. Significant, in the light of recent events, was his assertion that:

"If our navy is good enough we have a long career of peace and prosperity before us and the only likelihood of trouble ever coming to us as a nation will arise if we let our navy become too small or inefficient. A first class navy, first class in point of size, above all first class in point of efficiency, and and the individual unit as units in combination, is the surest and cheapest guarantee of peace. I should think that any man looking at what is happening and has happened abroad and in our history during the past few years, must indeed be blind if he cannot read that lesson clearly."

The President was in New York city five hours, but during that time did not put his foot in Manhattan, passing around the island in a ferryboat to the Brooklyn sode of the East river and after the exercises, returning in the same fashion. The entire trip was without unhappy incident.

The President made a hurried dash to the Naval Young Men's Christian Association. A rapid inspection of the building, the gift of Miss Helen M. Gold, was made and then the President delivered a 20-minute address. He again spoke to the Navy saying: "More and more our people are waking up to the need of a navy and in view of events happening all over the world, I think we can count on Congress to continue to build up our navy. It certainly will, if I can persuade it. It is all important to have ships the best in hull, the best in armor and the best in armament of any nation in the world.

Illinois Veterans Honors Confederates.

Charleston, S. C., March 30.—Federal Decoration-Day was observed in Charleston as a half holiday by many, and at the cemeteries the graves of soldiers who died here during the Spanish war, en route for Cuba, were decked with flowers and flags. A significant event was the placing of wreaths sent by Colonel Henry A. Turner, First Illinois Regiment, Chicago, upon the monuments and graves of Confederate soldiers.

At Andersonville Prison.

Americus, Ga., May 30.—The memorial exercises at Andersonville National Cemetery this morning were under the auspices of the Fitzgerald Grand Army Post and were of a very impressive character. Rev. O. O. Johnson, of Fitzgerald, delivered the oration. The Americus Light Infantry, which was ordered to Andersonville to keep the peace among the thousands of colored excursionists assembled there, marched to the cemetery by special invitation and fired the national salute of honor over the 4,000 Federal graves. This is the first time such an invitation has been extended the State troops, United tSates regulars, having performed such duty heretofore. The day passed quietly in the little town, the military and sheriffs' posse maintaining excellent order among the 4,000 negroes.

Day at Marietta.

Atlanta, Ga., May 30.—G. A. R. Veterans of Tallapoosa and Atlanta joined to-day in the observance of Memorial-Day, united with the organization at Marietta in decorating the graves of 11,000 Union dead in the National Cemetery at that place. A special train brought the Tallapoosa veterans to Atlanta where a special train conveyed them, with the Atlanta veterans, the Woman's Relief Corps and the Sons of Veterans to Marietta. A elaborate programme was carried out after which each of the thousands of graves was decorated with flowers and flags.

River Strewn with Flowers.

Knoxville, Tenn., May 30.—National Memorial-Day was observed here today. During the morning flowers were scattered upon the Tennessee river in memory of naval heroes. A short address was delivered by Captain John E. McClelland, state superintendent of public instruction of Indianapolis, in the afternoon in the National Cemetery where 3,500 Federal heroes are buried.

Interesting Incident at Chattanooga.

Chattanooga, Tenn., May 30.—The graves of 14,00 Union soldiers buried in the National Cemetery were decorated to-day. E. T. Sanford, of Knoxville, was the orator of the day. A feature of the exercises was the presentation of a handsome stand of colors by the citizens of Chattanooga to the Seventh Cavalry, located at Fort Oglethorpe, but soon to depart for the Philippines. The presentation was made by United States Senator J. B. Frazier.

Day at Memphis.

Memphis, Tenn., May 30.—National Decoration-Day was observed here today with fitting ceremonies. Two posts of G. A. R. veterans marched to the National Cemetery where an oration was delivered by United States District Attorney Frank P. Smith, and the graves were strewn with flowers.

Great Day at Nashville.

Nashville, May 30.—Decoration-Day was fittingly observed at the National Cemetery near Nashville and at Stone River Cemetery near Murfreesboro today. At the former place, where are buried 16,726 Federal soldies the ceremonies were witnessed by large crowds of people. Former Governor William O. Bradley, of Kentucky, was the orator of the day, and his address was a strong plea for better feeling between the various section of the country. After the address, flowers were scattered and a United States flag was placed on each grave.

In North Carolina.

Raleigh, N. C., May 30.—Memorial-Day was fittingly observed here at the National Cemetery where flowers were placed on the graves of the Federal dead. The exercises were in charge of S. D. Waitt, a Union veteran, and the oration was by Rev. J. C. Massee, of the Baptist church, a Southern preacher. A number of Confederate veterans were present. An original poem by A. B. Forest was a tribute to the men in blue.
